Frequently Asked Questions

Where is the studio located? In the Chelsea neighborhood on Manhattan at 245 West 29th Street, Studio 1200 (between 7th and 8th Aves) located near the 1, 2, 3, A, C, E, B, D, F, M, N, Q, R & W subways, the PATH Train, and Penn Station (LIRR).

When is the best time to photograph a newborn? Within the baby's first week or so, when the newborn can be most easily posed. If you're interested in less posed, more interactive portraits, wait until the baby is 1-2-months old, or able to hold their head upright.

When is the best time to schedule a maternity shoot? Usually around the 7th or 8th month of pregnancy.

Will the pictures be posted online? Yes, we'll create a password-protected online photo gallery so you can share them.

Are there extra charges for larger groups? $50 surcharge for 7-10 people, $100 surcharge for more than 10 people.

Are there extra charges for home and location shoots? For sessions at your home, a park, or any other of your favorite spots, surcharges are: Manhattan ($50); Brooklyn, Bronx, Queens and Staten Island ($75). Prices on request for shoots in Long Island, upstate New York, Connecticut, New Jersey and beyond.

Is retouching available? Sure! Basic retouching (clear skin, brighten eyes, clean stray hairs, etc.) is included for free on up to 3 images on your Digital Negatives and for all albums and custom prints 8x10 and larger. Additional basic or advanced retouching (adjust eyes and smiles, swap faces, and more) is $100/hr. with a 30-minute minimum.

Do you offer makeup services? You bet. Professional makeup is $200 for the first person and $150 for each additional person, payable directly to the makeup artist.

What are Digital Negatives? Digital negatives are full-resolution JPEG files suitable for high quality prints on an inkjet or laser printer, or to send to your choice of photo lab or print shop.

Can I buy prints and albums? Absolutely! Ask for details.
